

Chivapuri Beach Resort
Koh Chang, Trat

Fact Sheet

Nestled in a sandy cove in the prestigious marine conservation park of Koh Chong Island, at a stone's throw from the Ban Bang Bao fishing village and its famous sea-food restaurants, the recently-open Chivapuri Beach Resort is made of exquisitely designed traditional Thai houses dotted in shady coconut grove opening out on the private, secluded beachfront. There, the unmatched scenic beauty of the seascape, with its variety of outlying islands composing the marine park, the balmy sea breeze, and the most serene environment seems to have been purposely designed to soothe body and spirit.

Our contemporary Thai villas, inspired by the Sukhothai period and furnished with matching furniture, are fitted with all state-of-the-art amenities air-conditioning, a flat TV screen with a DVD player, free Wi-Fi access, an ensuite bathroom with wooden windows, and cathedral ceilings with an oversized, old-fashioned wooden electric fan. Our villas have been designed by integrating various elements of the natural surroundings.

Along the 300-meter-long strand, the natural white sand beach offers a restful and shady ground in an idyllic setting. You can relax, unwind, enjoy the island's flora and fauna, and let the tropical breezes blow gently without the hustle and bustle of the buzzing of jet skis, as silent sea kayaking is the only water sport available in addition to snorkeling. The only noises here dawn with a brief concert every morning.

For newlyweds, Chivapuri Beach Resort aims at transforming your honeymoon into a lifelong memorable experience.
